

Breif Description of various Schemes of Directorate of Sericulture, U.P.

A. Non Subsidy Schemes

1- Establishment of Modal Chawki Mulberry Garden

- Establishment of nurseries for mulberry plants.
- Plantation and subsequent maintenance.
- Strengthening, Repairs and maintenance of various infrastructure established on the farms.
- Disinfection for silk worm rearing.
- Training programmes at district level.

2- Scheme for the development of Tasar

- Establishment of nurseries for tasar plants.
- Plantation and subsequent maintenance.
- Strengthening, Repairs and maintenance of various established infrastructure.
- Disinfection for silk worm rearing.
- Training programmes at district level.

3- Eri Silk development scheme

- Plantation and subsequent maintenance for eri silkworm rearing.
- Strengthening, Repairs and maintenance of various established infrastructure .
- Disinfection for silkworm rearing.
- Training programmes at district level.

4- Silkworm seed production scheme

- Procurement of various materials required for silkworm seed production as well as in Grainage.
- Maintenance of government silk farms and P-1 farms specially for silkworm seed production.

- Purchase of quality disease free seeds from Central Silk Board Bangalore.
- Production of quality silkworm seed for the remaining demand of state.

5- Employment generation through sericulture in naxal affected area

- Selection of farmers in naxal affected areas of the state for the adoption of sericulture.
- Training of selected farmers naxal affected areas in host plant development as well as silkworm rearing in order to make them economically independent.
- Plantation and subsequent maintenance.
- Strengthening, Repairs and maintenance of various infrastructure established on the farms.
- Disinfection for silk worm rearing.

6- Jagrookta Evam Prasikshan Yojana

- Organising district level seminars, workshops etc. to educate farmers regarding latest technical know-how in the field of various technical activities.
- Organising state level seminar, workshops etc. to educate farmers, reelers, weavers etc. regarding latest technical know-how in the field of various sericultural technical activities.
- Distribution of sericulture awards to the highest cocoon producers and raw silk producers at state level.

7- Research and Development scheme

- To promote research on Mulbarry, Arjun and Eri plantation as well as silkworm rearing best suited to different agroclimatic zones of state.
- To develop appropriate prophylactic method to control silkworm design in order to enhance silk production in the state

- To develop suitable method of plant disease control in Mulberry, Arjun and Eri.

8- Direction & Administration- Directorate of Sericulture

- This scheme is primarily for the establishment expenditure pertaining to staff salaries, office expenses, travelling & LTC expenditure, vehicle maintenance and other office overheads of the Directorate and field offices.

B. Subsidy Scheme

1- Catalytic Development Programme

- This scheme comes under Central Sponsored Scheme category and funded by Central Silk Board, Ministry of Textiles, Government of India and Government of U.P.
- Formulation of various micro schemes for the development of sericulture in the private sector.
- Selection of beneficiaries and providing of tool kits for Silkworm rearing, Rearing house, Rearing appliances and assistance for host plant development including irrigation.
- Strengthening of grainage and P-1 seed farms and as well as distribution of disinfectant to seed rearers.
- Implementation of various micro schemes for the post cocoon sector for the development of Computer Aided Design, Modernization of Reeling Charkha and incentive for silk yarn production to the private reeling units.